(b) to (d) The State Government have intimated that the issue regarding return of Kashmiri Migrants is on the top agenda of the State Government. They have further intimated on 8th June 1998 that a Sub-Committee of Ministers comprising Revenue Law, Finacne and Tourism has been constituted under orders of the State Cabinet to examine the whole issue and make recommendations. Meanwhile, a Social Interaction Programme was started under which groups of migrants visited their native Districts in the Valley. This programme was launched with a view to enable the migrants to meet the member of the majority community and their old neighbours and interact with them. This measure would prove quite useful so far as confidence building between the migrants and the members of the majority community is concerned.

It is expected that the migrants would return to the Kashmir Valley once the detailed action plan is drawn and implemented by the State Government.
